Treasurer's report

Only 1 new member signed up since last report. All of our sponsorship money has been received. Some law ball ticket sales have come through.

DD said she'll write up the Treasurer's report once she gets the monthly statement at the end of the month.

First year rep

The new First Year Representative, JR, introduced herself.

Mayo update

MR said the Mayo lecture will be given 16 May 2014 in Cairns. The speaker will be Rob Hulls. It will not be video-linked to Townsville. The law school will fly MR up to introduce Rob Hulls.

IT update

RS has designed new logo. It incorporates JCU logo and scales of justice. It's black and white.

Social rep update

A bake sale will be held tomorrow to raise money for decorations. If any is left over, it will go towards charity. DD arranged to organise a float for SKS to use at the bake sale. MS said NP authorised $50 for float.

Motion by MS, seconded by MR to authorise $50 for float and to reimburse MS $10 for business cards.

Next pub crawl will be after law ball.

MS reported on attending the law ball committee. He said it went well and SKS has done a great job of organising.

ALSA Rep

4 nominations have come through. MS moved motion, seconded by RS for names of applicants to be provided when the exec votes on the next ALSA rep. Motion carried unanimously.

Law ball

As payment for the band at law ball, the LSS will make a donation to the Tristan Jepson Memorial Foundation. Mary Jepson will attend the law ball to accept the donation. She will give a speech at the ball and give a separate talk to students on campus.

There will be AV facilities at law ball and PLT providers have been given the option to come up and give a speech or send a video message for us to play throughout the law ball.

Banner

Everyone agreed the LSS should purchase a banner with our logo on it.

Meeting closed 6:46pm.

Treasurer's Report

Our opening balance for May was $5,057.47 in our access account, with the $5,000 remaining in the Term Deposit.

Our primary source of income for the month has been through sponsorship, with QUT, College of Law and Lawskool all depositing sums for the month. We've also had some income with Law Ball ticket sales starting to flow.

Our closing balance for the access account in May is $8,248.44 and $5,000 for the term deposit.
